20

Years of Fresh.

Growing the next decades.

“Twenty years ago, we opened a door. You walked through it.

It began in Bangkok in 2007 with a first gathering and a simple idea: bring the fresh produce world together. Nineteen editions later, that idea has become a global meeting point, shaped by every grower, buyer and partner who came back year after year. Thank you for every handshake and every harvest we’ve shared. These 20 years are yours as much as ours.
